Multiview Financials gives Newport Restaurant Group fast and comprehensive insight into their multiple business units; driving better business decisions.

Calculating financials used to be a struggle for Newport Restaurant Group. Producing reliable numbers took hours of effort and countless spreadsheet tabs. Now, thanks to Multiview, the NRG finance team aren't just accounting. They're putting numbers to work for them.

Multiview has allowed the company, and its 16 different business units, to quickly check up on the organization's financial health and understand what's impacting it. Expense reports, journal entries and invoices can all be quickly and easily entered. That has saved the company time that can now be put to use where it belongs: making better business decisions.

"Multiview has saved so much time in so many different areas of our business," said Sherrill Atasay, the company's Controller. "It has allowed us to stop pushing paper around and spend more time doing business-critical activities and analysis for our company."

Now takes 1 minute for NHC to get up-to-date
financial numbers with Multiview!

With only one query, NRG
